Description of Home Energy Audit

Home energy audits are available under this program, as described below.

Advanced Diagnostic Home Energy Audit

An Advanced Diagnostic Home Energy Audit will provide detailed information on your home's energy usage. A professional energy auditor will come to your home and perform the following tasks:

- Visual inspection of interior doors and windows
- Visual inspection of heating and cooling systems
- Visual inspection of attic insulation
- Visual inspection of air barrier
- Visual inspection of light fixtures, appliances, etc.
- Visual inspection of faucets (flow, leaks, etc.)
- Recommend repairs, improvements and upgrades
- Review of any applicable weatherization and rebate programs.
- Infiltration and ex-filtration testing using Calibrated Blower Door (Air Barrier)
- Infrared Thermal Scan of the home's interior and exterior
- Duct leakage testing
- Inspection of heating and cooling systems (CAZ Inspection)
- Inspection for moisture and condensation issues
- Recommend repairs, improvements and upgrades
- Review any applicable weatherization and rebate programs

The fee for the Advanced Diagnostic Home Energy Audit is $50, billed on your Provo City utility bill. The retail value of this audit is approximately $700.
